

Land of Compassion Buddha

Welcomes you to Teachings by Venerable Lharampa Geshe Pema Tshering

Land of Compassion Buddha
9352 - 106A Avenue NW
(NW is very important to put into google maps)
Edmonton, Alberta
T5H 2C5

On The Four Noble Truths, the foundational concepts to understanding Buddhist thought. Join us to learn and discuss the truth of suffering and its causes, as well as the path to happiness and liberation from suffering.

Every Sunday afternoon
starting from August 16, 2015
11:30 am free lunch
12:45 pm – 1:15 pm prayers
and meditation
1:15 pm – 2:30 pm Dharma talk
and Question/Answer period

The Four Noble Truths

Contact us:

info@compassionbuddha.ca
<http://compassionbuddha.ca>

Land of Compassion Buddha is a Tibetan Buddhist centre within the Gelugpa lineage. Founded by Khensur Rinpoche Geshe Lobsang Tsephel in California, we aim to serve everyone who seeks to remove the causes of suffering and learn the causes of happiness. We always welcome new friends interested in learning about Buddhism, Buddhist philosophy and meditation.

Our spiritual teacher, Ven. Lharampa Geshe Pema Tshering, was born in Bhutan and entered monastic life in India at the age of 15. After 18 years of studying and practicing, he was awarded the degree of Lharampa Geshe (Doctorate in Buddhist Philosophy) at Gelugpa University in 2003. He also earned Honours degrees in Pramana, Perfection Sutra, Madhyamaka, Abhidharma, Vinaya, and Four Classes of Tantras. Geshe Pema Tshering taught Buddhist philosophy at Gaden Jangtse Monastic School, in Tibetan refugee settlements in India, as well as in many Buddhist centres around the world, including in New Zealand, Taiwan, Singapore, Malaysia, and Canada.